Friday Jan. 25, 1918.

My dearest Mother,

I have just received the beautiful picture and I like it fine, I love to look upon that smiling face and it will be a great comforter when I am blue. Mother, I miss you every day and look back when I was at home with you and the family. You are my ideal of Mothers and I love you more than I can ever tell you.

I w one of your last letters, (I received three all in one day dated Dec 3, 6 and 17th and I was tickled to death.) you said, that Joe wanted to join the service and I would suggest that you let him join as soon as he was 18 if he still wanted to do so. I feel sure he will still want to do it. It is the only place for young men now unless they have some one to support. But if Joe joins he should know that it is a hard game and it will take lots of steel to go through with it. I feel absolutely sure he will make good.

Yes, Mother, it grows more serious each day and yet I enjoy being in it. I wish you could see the organization that we now have. Some day I will get to tell you all that has happened since I last left home. I was glad that Gary got into the service and two days ago I received two letters one from Staubleit and the other from Luther. They were both over here but there is no way of finding out just where they are.

But some time I hope to meet them. I was glad to hear from them and there are many I know over here if we ever get to meet.

I received a beautiful warm sweater from Ruth yesterday and it matches the muffler you sent me.

I also had a letter from her to-day and it was from Clarksdale to my surprise. I am still on the look out for pak Mrs. Coge sent me, also the box of candy from Coq. Ritchie and the package sent from home.

Now is Aunt Jennie? Tell her the fruit cake sound swell over here. For it is the only kind of cake that will keep fresh. I appreciate the kind remarks Mrs. Hodges said and tell her that I often think of her and wished that I could be half as good as she is. How is Mr. Crumby? I suppose he thinks that I have forgotten my old friend but I certainly haven't and never will.

Tell him to write me. Give my love to Dad and the <sup>part of</sup> family that is at school.
Mother, have my friends not to wait on me to write but to go ahead and send me some letters. For the past week I have been very lucky in receiving mail and it certainly helps me to keep up the "old pep." Best Wishes to "Pete"

Love to you my dear Mother! your devoted son
Rayce
